

SAFETY:

Safety is a primary concern for the general welfare of all students. Each child needs to understand the importance of practicing safe behaviors for their own safety as well as that of other children. Throughout the year the school teaches safety as an outgrowth of the health education curriculum. Periodically, our local law enforcement agencies present safety assemblies to stress the importance of various topics such as Halloween, fire, bike safety, and stranger safety.