9. Speaking: Presentations and Reports

Journal your own experiences, including the date, where you were, what you presented and who the audience was.

I can introduce myself with one or two short, memorized phrases.

I can give a short presentation about myself and my family.

I can give a presentation about my daily life using a series of sentences.

I can give a detailed presentation on a topic or event of interest to me.

I can give a clear, detailed, researched report on an academic topic.