Windows & Black Mirrors: SOCIAL MEDIA & YOUTH SUICIDE

Tuesday, August 30, 2022

12:00 PM EST

Youth suicide has been on the rise since 2007. What is the role of social media and other information and communication technologies on youth mental health? This webinar will translate the most important research on social media and suicide risk into practical tips for parents and teachers; discuss how youth communicate distress online; and review recommendations for addressing suicide risk in online settings.

Dr. Jonathan Singer, Ph.D., LCSW, is an associate professor at Loyola University Chicago's School of Social Work. He is the past-president of the American Association of Suicidology and the founder and host of the Social Work Podcast. He has published numerous articles and books on youth suicide and social media. He is also a frequent speaker at national and international conferences on youth suicide.
