

QUESTION: Where does my child keep the instrument and supplies?

ANSWER: AT HOME. Your child will bring the instrument to school on the day of the lesson and bring the instrument home that same day. The lesson book should be kept in the child's backpack when not being used. This will insure that the child doesn't leave the book home on the day of the lesson or in school when they want to practice at home.